Today's meeting:

DSU plans Ag Building renovations

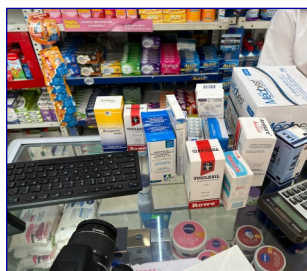

Dickinson State University is proposing a major renovation and expansion of the campus' Agriculture Building. The plans include upgrades to the building's classrooms, laboratories, and infrastructure.

Last week's program:

Rotary and DSU nursing students' Guatemala impact

Our club provided monetary donations, toys, school supplies and other items brought to Antigua, Guatemala in March when DSU nursing students spent their spring break on a mission trip. Erica Martinez-Meza said the group worked with 26 malnourished babies and bought medicine for them, made home visits to kids participating in the God's Child Project and built three homes for families that had been living in homes with tin walls and dirt floors. It was a trip of a lifetime, she said, for the 14. The trip cost more than $25,000 , funded by community donations, Dickinson Rotary and a grant from District 5580.

Welcome new Rotarian Rick Burwick

Rick Burwick, center, is sponsored for membership by Rotarian Erv Van-Veldhuizen and received his club membership materials at last week's meeting. Rick was a Rotarian in Kansas and has relocated to Dickinson.
