Last Week at Rotary:

Rotary "Doing Good in the World"

On the 119th anniversary of Rotary's founding, the Dickinson Rotary Club celebrated by supporting causes in our community and internationally. The board selected two organizations to receive more than $800 each from the earnings from our Dickinson Rotary Charitable Foundation. Newly-organized Scout Troop 222 received $840 that they plan to use for camping equipment. The troop of nine girls organized a year ago and meets every two weeks. The other organization will receive its donation in the future.

Rotary presented $840 to new Scout Troop 222, an all-girl troop. Rotarian and Boy Scouts District Chair Jeremy Berger, left, and Club President Urja Aryal, right, presented the check to the scouts.

February Community Kindness donation: Rotarians Natasha Ash, left, and President-Elect Kyle Smith presented $200 and other items to the DSU nursing students going to Guatemala.

Rotarians Dawn Pruitt, left, and Natasha Cushman, center, presented $500 to the F5 Project for January's Community Kindness donation.

Today's Meeting:

Greeters: Nicole Wandler & Huijian Dong

Next week: Carol Enderle and Alex Schwab

This month's Community Kindness will be announced at today's meeting.

Invocation:

Let us think of the people we are with today and make the most of our fellowship. Let us think of people who will not have a meal today. May all be blessed. AMEN
