Welcome new member Nathan Huntington

Last week we welcomed Nathan Huntington, Bismarck, as a new member. Nate is a retired Marine Corps helicopter pilot. He manages building projects with the Theodore Roosevelt Medora Foundation and is sponsored by Joe Wiegand.

Annual Armed Forces Day May 15

Our annual Armed Forces Day luncheon will be held Wednesday, May 15 at noon at the Biesiot Activities Center. Armed Forces Day recognizes and celebrates our armed forces and service members past and present. The general public, veterans and those currently serving, as well as family members, are encouraged to attend. Tickets cost $20 at the door. Full Rotary members will be admitted free; basic members will be billed $20. Our speaker will be Dickinson native Col. Cody Volk with an update on the new Dickinson armory. Our event co-sponsor, Dickinson American Legion Post 3, will present the colors. The event ends with a musical salute to each branch of service. Thanks to our Rotary Committee for Armed Forces Day: Kari Shea, Todd Otto, Stepheny Reger and Kris Fehr.

Last week, Todd Otto was presented his Paul Harris +5 pin! Todd has donated funds and the club has matched with points to equal $6,000 to The Rotary Foundation. "Doing Good in the World."

Today's Meeting:

Greeters: Dustin Monke and Linda Steve
Next week: Cliff Weiler and Kari Shea

Community Kindness: This month's Community Kindness will be announced at Wednesday's meeting.

Invocation:

Let us invoke the spirit of clarity. May our minds be free from the clutter of distractions, enabling us to see our objectives with the unwavering focus of a stargazer. AMEN
