Today's Program:

Local nursing students serve in Guatemala, Erica Martinez-Meza

Last week's program:

Armed Forces Day luncheon

Dickinson Rotary and our event co-sponsor, Dickinson American Legion Post 3, held our annual Armed Forces Day luncheon last week at the Biesiot Activities Center. Speaker Col. Cody Volk, ND National Guard, updated us on the 30-year process to the new Dickinson Readiness Center now under construction, as well as other statewide projects. Club President-elect Kyle Smith served as emcee, Kris Fehr gave the welcome and the American Legion provided the color guard invocation and benediction. Thanks to our club planning committee: Rotarians Kari Shea, Stepheny Reger, Todd Otto and Kris Fehr. This event was open to the public, with about 55 in attendance and lunch catered by Sodexo. Thanks to the BAC for the facility, Prairie Winds Church for printing and Girl Scouts, who provided cookies for veterans in attendance.

Thanks to Rotarians Amanda Wilson and Kris Fehr for photographs.

Today's meeting: Nursing students impact Guatemalan children, families

With support from a District 5580 matching grant, nursing students from Dickinson State University conducted a mission trip with the God's Child Project and made connections with a Rotary Club. Hear about their experiences on Wednesday.

Today's Meeting:

Greeters: Rebecca Ferderer and Vicky Steiner
Next week: Paul Steffes and Stephen Snowden

Community Kindness for May is the Stark County Deputies Association for K-9 program, community programs and donations, and community fundraising events.

Invocation: Through the colors of creativity, inspire us to view challenges as opportunities and to approach problems with the excitement of discovery. AMEN
