Today's Program:

"Something Special," President-Elect Kyle Smith

Today's meeting:

President-Elect previews next year

President-Elect Kyle Smith has "Something Special" for today's meeting: Prize giveaways*, budget preview and fun, cool plans for the coming Rotary year. Kyle is the development officer for athletics and rodeo for the DSU Heritage Foundation. He joined the Club in September 2022 and joined the Board shortly after. He is a Paul Harris Fellow and a third-generation Rotarian.

Last week's program:

DSU Ag Building renovation

Last week's speaker, Rotarian Ty Orton, executive director of the DSU Heritage Foundation, previewed the $25 million proposed project to renovate and add on to the DSU Ag Building. Thanks to $17.1 million from the state, the building will include renovated classrooms, an indoor arena with seating for 600 and parking lot repairs. Plans further include a new warm up arena, separate parking for 45 trailers, a new south entry and replacing the yellow exterior siding. Sponsorships available.

'Miles for Money' visits Club

Park Rapids, Minn. Rotarian Katy Freitag and her husband, Scott, who is fighting stage 4 prostate cancer, are biking the perimeter of the United States to bring awareness to prostate cancer testing. They visited last week and exchanged club flags. milesformoney.org

Welcome new Rotarian Andrew Parsley

Last week we welcomed Andrew Parsley, pictured left, as a new member. Andrew is the sales manager for the Badlands Big Sticks. He is sponsored for membership by Brad Fong and received his membership materials from president-elect Kyle Smith.

Today's Meeting:

Greeters: Marya Skaare and Irene Schafer

Next week: Becca Vogel & Stepheny Reger

Community Kindness for June is cash donations for a bullying prevention program by Dickinson Boxing Club.

Invocation: Let us honor the uniqueness of every individuals and foster an environment where every voice is heard and valued.

AMEN
