Today's Program

Jason Fischer, construction manager, ND Department of Transportation

Pancake Carnival this Sunday, 8 am noon!

Last year, Rotarians Mike Ollerman and Martin Peterson were on sausage duty and Jared Messer was on the pancake grill at the Pancake Carnival. We need everyone to make this a successful event again this year! See link in the email to sign up. See you Sunday morning.

This year's dictionary project involved 484 dictionaries, 25 classrooms, 20 Rotarians, 10 schools and 3 towns. See photos on page 2 and our Facebook page.

This week's program:

Highway construction projects

This week, Jason Fisher, construction manager for the ND Department of Transportation, will speak about DoT projects in our area.

Last week's meeting

Economy growing with Stark Development

Stark Development Corp.'s $1.5 million budget is mainly dedicated to its programs that promote economic development and support existing businesses, said executive vice president Ryan Jilek at last week's meeting. Through its efforts, 26 percent of Stark County's workforce has been touched as SDC to recruitment. Some barriers include lack of commercial space and of workforce.

Our World Series fundraising boards are available! Cost is $10/square. Contact Treasurer Brad Fong to fill the club's board. Each board brings in $500 for club projects!

Today's Meeting:

Greeters: Isaac Egli and Vicky Steiner

Next week: Nate Huntington & Linda Steve

Community Kindness: Once again Rotary will be participating in Trick or Trunk on Halloween! Please donate bags of wrapped candy and contact Rotarian Dawn Pruit to volunteer.

Invocation: Thank you for this club of people with whom we can share our interests with no worry or fear. We are grateful that we can talk to them with seriousness, helpful suggestions and a sense of humor. AMEN

Coming up:

THIS SATURDAY, 8 am to noon, Pancake Carnival: Our club's Polio eradication annual fundraiser breakfast at the Eagles Club. Sign up at this week's meeting or online.
