ND Small Business Development Center, Pete Leno, Dickinson office advisor

Today's program:

ND Small Business Development Center

The North Dakota Small Business Development Center provides customized guidance and resources that help business owners and entrepreneurs achieve their goals at every stage of the business life cycle. Former faculty member and coach at Dickinson State University, new SBDC advisor Pete Leno, will talk about services that the center provides.

Get Involved! We are seeking a coordinator for Highway Cleanup. Twice a year, our club picks up trash on three miles of I-94 near the Painted Canyon rest area. We are thankful for Rotarian Seth Poland's many years of leadership of this longtime club environmental project. Contact President Kyle Smith for details.
