Today's Program

2025 Theodore Roosevelt Symposium, Dr William Hansard, Theodore Roosevelt Center

Today's Program: TR Symposium

Throughout his career, Theodore Roosevelt championed the Navy. Our program this week features Dr. William Hansard from the TR Center speaking about the upcoming TR Symposium in September: "TR and the Navy."

Meet Rotarian Shirley Dukart

Shirley Kuntz Dukart grew up on a farm north of South Heart. After graduating from Dickinson High School she married Richard, had a 33 year career with Northwestern Bell and became a realtor, having been with Home & Land Company since 2003. She has four adult children, 11 grandchildren and nine great-grand children. Her hobbies include trap shooting and fishing. She is a member of Eagles, Elks and Power of 100. The Pancake Karnival is a favorite Rotary event.

Literacy Project begins

Our annual literacy project, reading to preschoolers at Head Start and the Early Childhood Program, took place Monday and Tuesday. Rotarian Urja Aryal and Samantha read "I Love Colors."

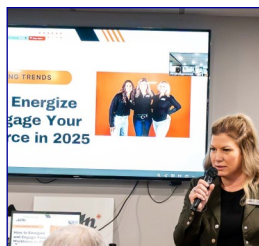

Last week: Empowering the workforce

At All In Development Company, they don't just train teams—they empower them to transform.

Kari Dunn, co-founder, and Rebecca Christianson, fitness and wellness coach, were on hand to explain that All In offers tailored programs like Sales

Training that drives measurable results, Executive Management Training that sharpens leadership through goal-setting and delegation leveraging Entrepreneurial Operating System-inspired methods, and Supervisor Training designed to equip leaders with tools for coaching, mentoring, and handling tough conversations. What sets them apart is follow-through and holding people accountable. After every training, they reconnect with attendees to ensure new strategies are being implemented in their daily work.
