Today's Program

The Great Pumpkin Hunt, Robbin Schwindt, Consolidated

Meet Rotarian Joe Weigand

An avid reader at a young age, Joe Weigand read "Eisenhower's Crusade in Europe" when he was just 10 years old. He graduated college with a political science degree. He wanted to go into politics, but there were parts he didn't like. After 9-11 he decided to go on stage as Theodore Roosevelt. In 2012, Joe came to Medora to portray Roosevelt. Joe joined Rotary in 1991 as a charter secretary and has been a Rotarian in four clubs. He lives and loves the Rotary motto, Service Above Self, and enjoys happiness and fellowship in Rotary.

Paul Harris pin awarded to Rotarian Linda Steve

Linda Steve received her Paul Harris +3 pin from The Rotary Foundation in recognition of her $4,000 in donations, matched by points by our Club, to TRF. Club President Kyle Smith presented the award.

Today: The Great Pumpkin Hunt

The Great Pumpkin Hunt is an annual community activity sponsored by Consolidated and sponsors. Robbin Schwindt will speak today about this event.

Last week: The Beginning Project

Pastor Joe Ridl, Kristin Ridl and Anna Woods spoke last week about their efforts to help people in need find resources. They hold free events to bring resources together and help those struggling with addiction recovery and other immediate needs for food, housing and others. The volunteer board is contacted by agencies seeking assistance for clients. The project's greatest need is funding and support at events. The next event is planned for August and is in the planning stages.
